Course Description

This qualification reflects the role of workers in the community and/or residential setting who follow an individualised plan to provide person-centred support to people who may require support due to ageing, disability or some other reason. Work involves using discretion and judgement in relation to individual support as well as taking responsibility for own outputs. Workers have a range of factual, technical and procedural knowledge, as well as some theoretical knowledge of the concepts and practices required to provide person-centred support.

To achieve this qualification, the candidate must have completed at least 120 hours of work as detailed in the Assessment Requirements of the units of competency.

Please note about Role of Agents in Recruiting Students: Prospective students may contact Australian Institute of Technical Training (AITT) directly, or the contact may be through an Agent. In all cases the student is provided with all relevant information by AITT, and the complete enrolment process is conducted by AITT. Where an Agent is involved, the Agent's sole role is to introduce the student to AITT. The Agent has no role or responsibility in determining the student's eligibility for the relevant qualification or in advising the student on the most suitable course for the student to undertake. If you have any question regarding this, please email at: admissions@aitt.vic.edu.au immediately.
