Course Description

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community based environments. Workers will take responsibility for their own outputs within defined organisation guidelines and maintain quality service delivery through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery.

Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and have limited responsibility for the organisation and the quantity and quality of outputs of others within limited parameters.

To achieve this qualification, the candidate must have completed at least 120 hours of work as detailed in the Assessment Requirements of the units of competency.

Please note about Role of Agents in Recruiting Students: Prospective students may contact Australian Institute of Technical Training (AITT) directly, or the contact may be through an Agent. In all cases the student is provided with all relevant information by AITT, and the complete enrolment process is conducted by AITT. Where an Agent is involved, the Agent's sole role is to introduce the student to AITT. The Agent has no role or responsibility in determining the student's eligibility for the relevant qualification or in advising the student on the most suitable course for the student to undertake. If you have any question regarding this, please email at: admissions@aitt.vic.edu.au immediately.
